

FUTURE LIMERICK

CLIMATE ARTS FESTIVAL 2024

18TH – 25TH MAY

VISIT WWW.LIMETREEBELLTABLE.IE FOR FULL FESTIVAL PROGRAMME

funding
the arts

Comhairle Cathrach
& Contae Luimnigh
Limerick City
& County Council

FUTURE LIMERICK

CLIMATE ARTS FESTIVAL 2024

Family Fun Day

VENUE: People's Park

SAT 18TH MAY | RUNS FROM 12pm - 5pm

Free event, no registration required.

A free family fun day in People's park. Come along for games, face painting, stilt walking, drumming workshops, a clothes swap and much more to celebrate the opening of Future Limerick Climate Arts Festival.

FREE OUTDOOR
ALL DAY EVENT

The End We Start From

VENUE: Belltable

MON 20TH MAY | TIME: 5pm & 8.15pm | TICKETS: €8

A woman tries to find her way home with her newborn baby while an environmental crisis submerges London in floodwaters. Featuring Jodie Comer and Joel Fry, this film looks at the fallout from the climate emergency.

Click here to book now

Visit www.limetreebelltable.ie to see the full programme.

FUTURE LIMERICK

CLIMATE ARTS FESTIVAL 2024

Emerging Limerick Filmmakers

Screening of two short films & Panel Discussion

VENUE: Belltable

MON 20TH MAY | TIME: 7pm

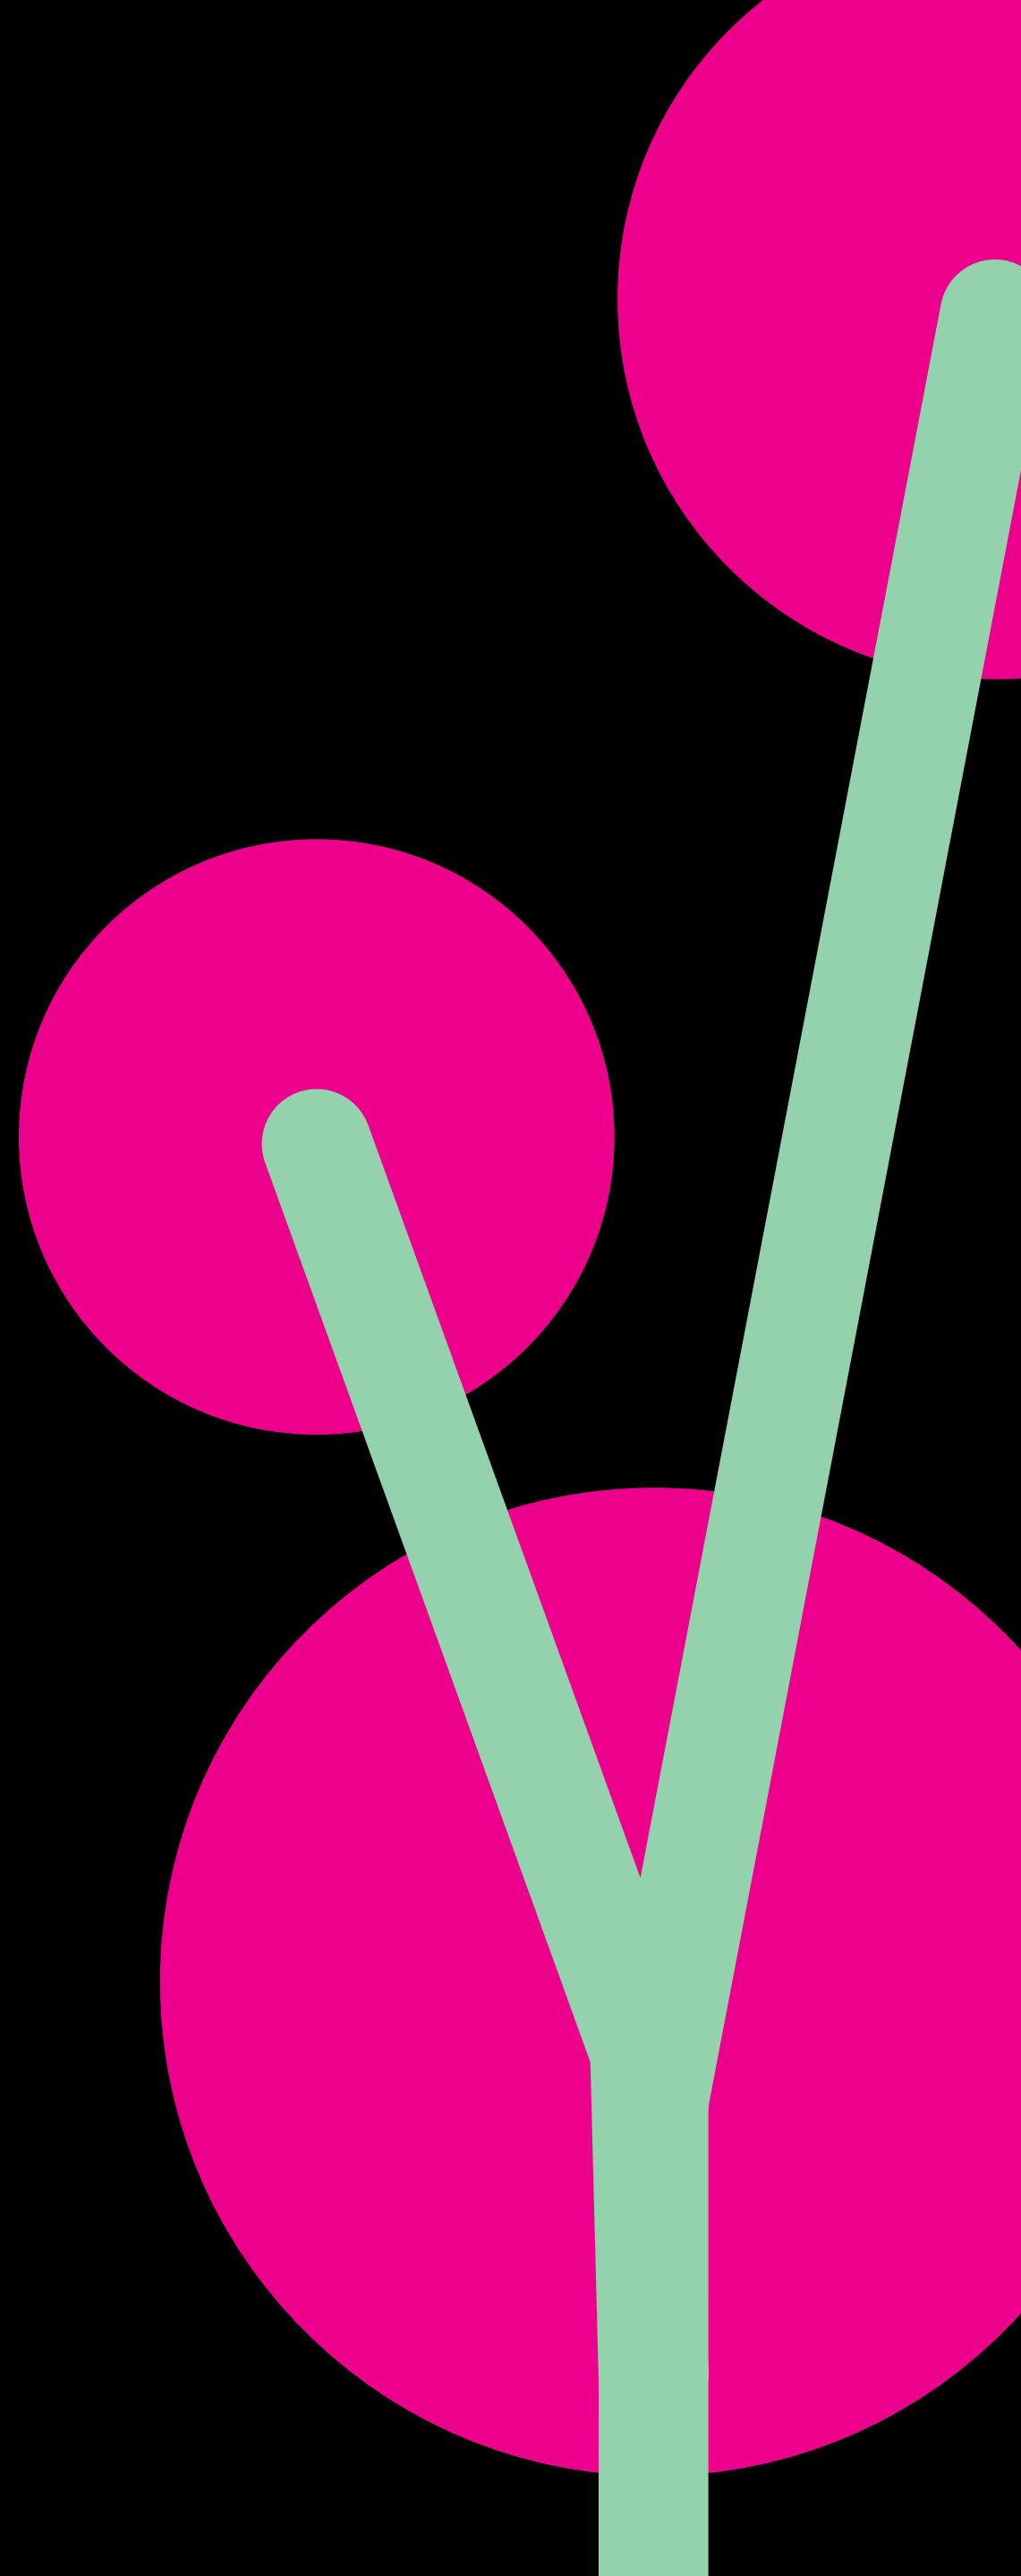

€3 minimum - Pay What You Can

Scenario X is a project funded by the Arts Council, with additional support from Screen Ireland, Limerick Arts Office and the National Youth Film and Animation Network. It represents some of the most ambitious filmmaking by young filmmakers in Ireland. Rat King & Mob the Trench are two films that were developed by Emerging Limerick Filmmaker's members with professional mentorship. The films look to the future tackling topics around anxiety, belief and personal identity in the face of a contested place in a changing world. The films have begun their festival runs and have both found success nationally and abroad.

Click here to book now

EMERGING
LIMERICK
FILMMAKERS

Visit www.limetreebelltable.ie to see the full programme.

Music and Myth Busting: A night of songs and surprising global stories

VENUE: Belltable

TUE 21ST MAY | TIME: 7pm | TICKETS: €12

Music can bring us together - but it also has the power to educate, open eyes and break barriers. Join us for one fascinating evening of beautiful music, storytelling and some illuminating facts about the world we live in, told through the power of intercultural song. Brought to you by the University of Limerick's Arts, Data, Literacy and Diversity project.

Click here to book now

Scratch Night: An evening of new short plays

Sunday's Child & Lime Tree Theatre | Belltable

VENUE: Belltable

WED 22ND MAY | TIME: 7pm | TICKETS: €12

An inspiring evening of short plays themed around the climate crisis, celebrating exciting new work by writers, actors and directors from Limerick and beyond. Scratch Night features 5 short new plays, performed by an ensemble cast. Plays from the 2022 Scratch Night have gone on to be developed as full length works on stages around the country. Don't miss your chance to witness a new generation of plays being born, showcasing the best of Limerick's new and established talent.

Click here to book now

Visit www.limetreebelltable.ie to see the full programme.

Panel Discussion hosted by PJ Kirby (I'm Grand Mam)

Fast Fashion vs the Future

VENUE: Belltable

THU 23RD MAY | TIME: 7pm | TICKETS: €15

Hosted by PJ Kirby of smash-hit podcast I'm Grand Mam, this panel discussion brings together movers and shakers in the world of fashion and sustainability to discuss ethical clothing, consumption, and the future of fast fashion. PJ will be joined by Rónán Ó Dálaigh, CEO of Thriftify, the Irish startup that is set to revolutionise the second-hand clothing economy, and Ríon Hannora, a "slow fashion" designer who has worked with Charles Jeffrey Loverboy and YSL and is the organiser of Dublin Independent Fashion Weekend. Our panelists will shed light on how fashion can transform from one of the most environmentally destructive industries to a beacon of hope.

Click here to book now

Chicken

Award winning play by Sunday's Child

VENUE: Belltable Café

WED 22ND - FRI 24TH MAY | TIME: 8.30pm | TICKETS: €25

Limited capacity, early booking advised.

Don Murphy is a proud Irish man, a hopeless ketamine addict and one of his generation's greatest actors. He also happens to be a chicken. A Kerry cock to be precise. Across one fateful night, the feathered Oscar winner shares his star-studded story: from getting his big break, to his first bird on bird sexual experience, to navigating life in the (human-dominated) celebrity spotlight. But along the way Don will be confronted with some harsh truths about himself, chicken kind and humankind. Winner of Filipa Bragança award for best Female identifying solo performer at the Edinburgh Fringe 2023.

Click here to book now

Playwriting Workshop with Fishamble's Gavin Kostick

Creativity and the Climate

VENUE: Belltable

SAT 25TH MAY | TIME: 2pm - 5pm | TICKETS: €25

Limited capacity, early booking advised.

Learn to craft your own climate play with expertise from an established Irish theatre maker. Explore the art of playwriting with dramaturg Gavin Kostick from Fishamble: The New Play Company, and gain valuable skills and insights into writing for theatre. No previous experience necessary.

Click here to book now

Rehearsed reading of The Good People

A new play by Niall Carmody

VENUE: Belltable

SAT 25TH MAY | TIME: 7pm | TICKETS: €12

In a ramshackled home in rural Ireland, sisters Winifred and Michelle Gannon deal with life after the death of their much loved mother. As Michelle seeks to move on from the loss, Winifred refuses to accept her new reality and searches for answers in the most unlikely of places...the fairy fort on the family land. This is a rehearsed reading of a new play by Niall Carmody.

Click here to book now

Visit www.limetreebelltable.ie to see the full programme.