Distillation

SAT 7TH SEPTEMBER | 2.30PM, 5PM, 8PM

Tickets: €18 / €16

Distillation is a response to the recent cessation of the peat harvesting industry in Ireland. Over the past year, Luke Casserly has collaborated with renowned perfume maker Joan Woods to create a unique distillation of the Midlands bog – the place where he grew up – as the starting point for an olfactory encounter which looks at our human relationship to place. Dedicated to the future of our broken landscapes – in the hope that by listening to them, we might be able to better understand them.

All My Sons

WED 6TH - SAT 9TH NOVEMBER | 8PM

SAT MATINEE: SAT 9TH NOVEMBER | 2PM | €20

Tickets: €26 / €22

Following the success of their productions of Pigtown and Calendar Girls in recent years, College Players return to the Lime Tree stage with Arthur Miller's critically acclaimed play, All My Sons. The love of money and the actions one takes to acquire it, can create a lifetime of misery and guilt. In this utterly compelling drama, the central figure, Joe Keller, strives to keep the truth of a old crime in the distant past. However, long buried truths are forced to surface, and ultimately the American dream comes tumbling down for Joe and those close to him. With no route to escape, characters become imprisoned and implicated by Joe's guilt and deceit. A tour de force plot unfolds from beginning to end, this play is not to missed by theatre lovers.

Brighton

THU 17TH - SAT 19TH OCTOBER | 8PM

Tickets: €21 / €17

Torch Players return to the Belltable stage this autumn, following the success of their production of By the Bog of Cats last year. Brighton is Waterford playwright Jim Nolan's poignant, but wonderfully uplifting play, which takes the ordinary story of three people and becomes a major belief in miracles, human support and comfort. Set in present-day London we meet the never say die widow, Lily Thompson, celebrated actor Jack Dunhill, paralysed from the waist down, lamenting a modest career and a lifetime of regrets and the almost too cheery care assistant Dave. It is a thoughtful but funny salute to survival as a sometimes small but significant statement, where regrets are put aside and even hopeless cases have their time to shine.

Tickets: €26 / €24

'War makes heroes and demons doesn't it, so how could war in Ireland be any different?'

Told through the prism of two sisters, OUTRAGE is a play that explores the true nature of women's role in the Irish revolutionary wars and in particular the effect of Civil War on women's mind, body and soul. Alice and Nell play key roles in arming revolutionaries, organising civic resistance and in particular the propaganda war. They are fervent, they are funny, they are human and they, like everyone else in Ireland become deeply conflicted as the country spins toward a shattering Civil clash that split the nation and continues to haunt Irish politics, society and culture to this day.

Support the Lime Tree Theatre and Belltable

We have a range of ways in which you can support both our venues, the Lime Tree Theatre and Belltable.

Become a Loyal, Business or Corporate Friend.

With your support, we open up the potential to create more landmark theatre for audiences in Limerick, the mid-west region and beyond.

For more information contact Gillian Fenton at: gillian@limetreetheatre.ie

Rent a space at the Belltable Hub

Belltable Hub has two rehearsal studios, a meeting room, four hotdesking places, free access to wifi throughout the building and copying/printing facilities, all located in the city centre at 69 O'Connell Street.

For more information contact Rachel Ryan Keating at: Rachel@limetreetheatre.ie

This Christmas, give a Gift Voucher for the Lime Tree Theatre and Belltable
