DAVID NIHILL

Taking Tangents Tour

THUR 3RD SEPTEMBER | 8PM | Tickets: €29.50

BOOK NOW

After two sold out world tours David Nihill's first ever Limerick performance is well overdue for a man with a mother from Limerick and a dad from Clare. Leaving Dublin where he was born and raised until the age of 22, David got drunk on travel and never quite hit sobriety of it. He has lived and worked in twelve countries and visited over eighty. His shows draw on his wide travels, cultural observations, attempts at language study, (occasional) international drinking session(s) and being a mildly confused immigrant.

He has been featured on TED.com, Netflix is a Joke Festival, RTE's Late Late Show, The Irish Independent, Inc, among others. A festival favorite, David's videos have also gone viral many times over with over 1 billion views and a social following of over 2.5 million people.

REFUGE

By Deirdre Kinahan24TH - 26TH SEPTEMBER | 8PM | TICKETS: €30/€28*BOOK NOW"All war... it starts with stories, starts with lies."*

In 1710, a group of Palatines fled religious persecution in Germany and were offered refuge in Rathkeale, County Limerick.

Blending theatre with live music and dance, REFUGE traces their journey and explores the enduring connections between displaced communities of the past and those seeking safety today.

REFUGE EXHIBITION

THURS 24TH - SAT 26TH SEPTEMBERVENUE: LIME TREE FOYER

The exhibition tells the story of the Irish Palatines, approximately 3,000 people who left Germany in 1709 seeking refuge and a better life in Ireland. Their legacy represents an enduring connection between Ireland and Germany. The German Embassy Dublin is delighted to present the exhibition at the Lime Tree Theatre alongside Refuge by Deirdre Kinahan. It will then travel across Limerick during the Ireland's EU Presidency before finding its permanent home with the Irish Palatine Association.

The Ferryman is the sweeping, Tony and Olivier Award-winning drama by Jez Butterworth.

Set in County Armagh during the late summer of 1981, the play follows the sprawling Carney family as they prepare for their annual harvest feast — a day of hard work followed by an evening of music, dancing and celebration. But the festivities are shattered when a visitor arrives carrying a secret buried for more than a decade.

Widely acclaimed as a modern classic, The Ferryman masterfully blends the tension of a political thriller with the warmth and complexity of a family saga. It is a powerful exploration of love, loss, and the enduring impact of the past amid the turmoil of Northern Ireland's Troubles.

ROMEO AND JULIET

THURS 26TH NOVEMBER | 7.30PM

TICKETS: €32/€27 | FAMILY €90

Against a backdrop of ancient feuds and gang warfare, two souls dare to love. Inspired by Shakespeare's legendary tale of star-crossed lovers, Romeo & Juliet is a gripping story of passion, defiance, and fate.

Romeo and Juliet are drawn into a love so powerful they defy everything around them—including their own families. But in a world where loyalty is demanded and vengeance reigns, their love comes at a devastating cost.

Set to Prokofiev's powerful and soaring score, this stunning production blends exquisite choreography with raw emotion, sweeping audiences into a story where every glance, every movement, and every moment plunges our two young lovers into a whirlwind of desire, danger, and heartbreak.

How far would you go for love... when everything is at stake?

A timeless tale. A powerful score. An unforgettable experience.
